COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
HARRISBURG

Dear Fellow Pennsylvanians,

Voting is a pillar of America's democracy. By participating in elections, you decide who will represent you in Pennsylvania government. That's what we're prioritizing making it more convenient for Pennsylvanians to participate in the voting process. My administration launched register.votespa.com to allow Pennsylvanians to register to vote or change their registration online.

During the 2016 election cycle, voters elected a new president, but each and every election is incredibly important to your communities. This year Pennsylvanians will be given the opportunity to decide who runs their local governments from their city, township or borough, to the county that they reside. Further, many statewide and local judicial positions will be on the ballot.

To enhance your understanding of the political process, it is my pleasure to provide the 2017 election calendar. Within its pages you will find an extensive list of important dates and deadlines in Pennsylvania's electoral system.

I hope you find this guide useful as we work together to maximize participation in our elections.

Sincerely,

Governor Tom Wolf

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY
HARRISBURG

Dear Fellow Pennsylvanians,

As citizens of the United States, each of us has the right to participate in the electoral process. There is no civic action we can take that is more powerful than going to the polls and casting our ballot. However, the process begins before Election Day.

As the state's Chief Election Official, I am pleased to present the 2017 Pennsylvania Election Calendar. This comprehensive listing of important dates includes valuable information for voters, candidates, campaign workers and election officials.

With this guide, candidates and their campaign staffs can keep track of important dates related to ballot access and campaign finance requirements. Detailed information on running for office can be found at the Department of State's website, dos.pa.gov.

For voters, the Election Calendar contains deadlines for registration as well as for requesting and submitting absentee ballots. Visit votesPA.com to verify registration status, locate your polling place, find contact information for county election offices and download forms.

In 2017, voters will elect judges for the Supreme, Superior and Commonwealth courts, as well as the Court of Common Pleas in each county. Also on the ballot will be a wide array of other local and county seats. These are officeholders who have a direct impact on our daily lives, deciding important questions on services such as education, public safety and transportation.

I urge every eligible citizen of the Commonwealth to register to vote. Online voter registration makes the process more convenient, secure and accessible than ever. Go to register.votespa.com to register for the first time or to update your information. Then, exercise your most fundamental right as a citizen and cast your ballot in 2017 – and every year after that.

If you have election-related questions, I encourage you to contact the Department's Bureau of Commissions, Elections and Legislation at 1-877-VOTESPA (1-877-868-3772).

Very truly yours,

Pedro A. Cortés
